News and Announcements

The 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association will hold our reunion in conjunction with the Battle of the Bulge Association (BOBA) and the 8th Armored Division in Philadelphia, PA September 18-21, 2025.

Note from the Editor

Dear Reader,

We have received a number of requests via our Website and Facebook page for information about our 87th veterans from their relatives. In this edition, I will show how we use the 87th IDLA website and other research sources to find out more about our veterans.

The Registration Form and hotel information for the reunion in September are posted on the website and Facebook page as well as in this issue on page 4. In the near future we will have an agenda.

Sincerely,

George Welsh, son of Bob Welsh (87th Recon)

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members of the 87th Infantry Legacy Association,

It has been my honor to serve as your President for the years 2024 and 2025, and I am encouraged that we have been able to maintain a strong and steady membership over my tenure. In fact our membership chair, Tim Muilenburg, has told me that several new additions have been made thanks to our increased visibility via our new Facebook page, our website, and our regular Golden Acorn Newsletters. My heartfelt thanks go out to George Welsh, along with Barbara Strang, who has done such a great job for us in all those endeavors.

As you know, we have had our annual reunion in conjunction with the Battle of the Bulge Association over the past several years, and will do so again this September when they meet in Philadelphia the weekend of September 18-20, at the Hilton Garden Inn in Philadelphia city center. If you plan to attend, please find the registration form via a link on our 87th IDLA website. Please mail it in as soon as possible and make sure you note that you are with the 87th IDLA on the form. We are planning to have Thursday September 18th set aside just for us to meet, fellowship and conduct Association business. The room rate of $159 is also good several days before and after if you come early or stay later in Philly. I plan to arrive on the 17th so that we will be able to use the 18th for ourselves before their meetings begin.

As a further note regarding our annual meetings, I plan to organize a meeting just for our Association next year in Wilmington, NC. It will probably be in October or November so perhaps more people will be able to come. I plan to work on this event as soon as I turn over my duties as President to another person.

Finally I wanted everyone to know that Tom Hewlett, who continues his avid support, decided he needed to resign as our registered agent in Illinois, where our 501 (c) (3) organization was incorporated. Since we had no other members in Illinois, we had to dissolve the 87th IDLA in Illinois. I have had it reincorporated in North Carolina where I will now serve as the registered agent and we can continue to be recognized by the IRS as a charitable organization. All of the above activity was approved by your Executive Committee, and is on record in the corporation's minutes.

Please continue to tell others about the 87th IDLA and our continuing efforts to honor the lives and memories of the brave soldiers who fought so valiantly for the freedoms that we continue to enjoy today. They and their families truly were the "greatest generation."

In the December 2024 edition of the Golden Acorn News, we ran a story on the book, Faith, Family, and Friendly Fire Place Brought Me Home, that Past President and son of Lauren Dean, C-912FA, Jim Dean has been working on for the last six years.

Jim is nearing completion and would like for our members to provide a show of interest in the book. Note this is not a pre-order but merely an indication of interest. Feel free to send a note to the 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association website at <https://87thinfantry.org/contact.php>

Painstaking research has gone into this unique, fairy-tale-like account. In 2019, tour-guide, Doug Mitchell, provided Jim with the declassified daily after action reports of the 87th Infantry Division and the 912th Field Artillery. These reports have been woven together with over 240 letters between his parents, 60+ photos with narrative captions (both from family albums and taken by Doug Mitchell, the meticulous records his father kept during his time in Europe and accounts of other 87th Division veterans.. Readers of this book will know exactly where the 87th and 912th were throughout the duration of combat which began in early December 1944 until the European armistice on May 8, 1945 and receive an exceptionally vivid detail about the actual price paid by our WW II Veterans in exchange for the many freedoms that we enjoy today.

VE Day

May 8th, 1945 became a date for history—V-E day—Victory in Europe. While the nations of the world were celebrating the historic announcement with ringing church bells, parades and parties, a different type of celebration was going on in Plauen and Falkenstein. Captured enemy equipment was being rounded up and collected in huge parking lots, and the battle weary soldiers were busy “welcoming” the hundreds of German soldiers streaming in from the east to surrender.

In Falkenstein convoy after convoy of German vehicles rolled in loaded with the unconditionally surrendered “supermen.” Rapidly reloading into American vehicles they were speeded on the way to the rear.

At the big airfield outside Plauen, the 345th's guards were startled when the Luftwaffe began landing there once again; but this time their planes came in and were parked for the last time; the pilots consigned to the prisoner of war cages.

Grace Marie Sherk (wife of Ervin Sherk)	I-346

It is with a deep sense of loss that we announce the passing of Grace M. Sherk (wife of Ervin J. Sherk—I-346) on Wednesday, April 16, 2025. She passed peacefully in her home at Grossmont Gardens in La Mesa, CA at the age of 104 years and five months.

Born on a farm in Prescott, Pennsylvania on November 16, 1920, she was the daughter of the late Walter Simon and Bessie Mae (Hower) Deck and the younger sister of the late Beulah Elizabeth Troutman Lutz.

After school and during summers, in addition to helping on the farm, she assisted several families with housework and childcare. Since her parents were tenant farmers, they moved several times during her childhood. In 1933 her parents purchased a farm in Kutztown. This enabled Grace to finish her education at Myerstown High School, graduating in the Class of 1938.

In 1937 she met the love of her life, Ervin J. Sherk, and after dating for 6-1/2 years they married on Christmas Day 1943. In 1944, while Ervin was in basic training at Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, TX, Grace worked for the post master of Mineral Wells. Ervin was sent to Europe and fought in the Battle of the Bulge; Grace returned to Pennsylvania and worked in a shoe factory.

When their only child, Janice Grace, was born in 1947, Grace became a stay-at-home mother. She returned to work in 1959 at a local knitting mill. After several years Grace began working for Sterling Drug Corporation in the Bayer aspirin plant in Myerstown and retired from there in 1983.

She and Ervin loved to travel and attended many Army reunions of the 87th Infantry Division which included several cruises and a trip to Europe in 1976 where they revisited the route the 87th had taken during the war. They also enjoyed volunteering in R.S.V.P. of Lebanon County and the American Red Cross.

They loved to spend time at their mountain home in northern PA. Ervin was an avid hunter and spent hunting season in their home-away-from-home with Grace going along to do the cooking. They traveled to Proctor near Williamsport, PA all through the year so they could enjoy the beauty of the seasons. It wasn't unusual to see both of them on riding mowers as they cut the nearly one-acre lawn.

On June 27, 2006 Ervin suddenly passed away and Grace remained in her home and enjoyed tending her small garden. In 2010 Grace decided to move to San Diego to be closer to her daughter, Janice G. Klick, her son-in-law Larry E. Klick and grandson David M. Klick.

Grace lived at Grossmont Gardens for 14 years and made many friends during that time. She had a strong faith, a wonderful sense of humor and was always willing to assist people when they needed help. Everyone said she had a positive attitude, a warm smile, sparkling blue eyes, and never looked her age. She helped in the community's library for six years. Grace enjoyed cooking, baking, gardening, reading, crocheting, word search puzzles and a game called Crazy Dice.

In addition to Larry, Janice and David, she is survived by a niece, Helen Ernst, of Wyomissing, PA.

As per her request, a memorial service was held in her home church of St. Luke Lutheran Church, Schaefferstown, Pennsylvania on June 28, 2025 with the Rev. Angela Hammer officiating. Following the 11:00 a.m. service, she will be laid to rest next to her husband of 63 years in the Schaefferstown Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to St. Luke Lutheran Church, P. O. Box 278, Schaefferstown, PA 17088.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Grossmont Gardens for the love, care and friendships they shared with Grace over the years and to Radiant Hospice, San Diego, CA who showed such loving care and compassion during Grace's last days.

We will continue to publish in chronological order information on those who were Killed in Action/Died of Wounds/Missing in Action with the 87th Infantry Division. Information was obtained from the records of Paul Nessman (F&M-347), www.findagrave.com, www.newspapers.com, www.ancestry.com, and 87th General Orders and History.

Compiled by Barbara Strang (daughter of Ted Anderson, B-912FA)

February 2, 1945 — 10 Killed
February 3, 1945 — 9 Killed

345th Regimental History: February 2, 1945. The entire regiment was on the move by Division order. The First Battalion moved to Andler, the Second to Verschneid, the Third to Lauderfeld, Service Company to Heuem and Regimental Headquarters to a modern apartment building on the outskirts of Auw, Germany.

346th After-Action Report: February 2, 1945. Regiment in Division Reserve. Received order to move forward. Rear elements closed into Schonberg. Third Battalion moved to town of Lauderfeld. Tiger patrol moved beyond Krewinkle to investigate Siegfried Line bunkers on Hill 628. Regimental Command Post moved forward from St. Vith to Schonberg.

346th After-Action Report: February 3, 1945. Completed move to forward positions. Second Battalion moved to vicinity of Auw. First Battalion captured town of Krewinkel. Third Battalion moved to vicinity of Weckerath. Battalions improving and consolidating positions. Patrolling to front continued. Weather – cloudy, cool and light rain. Casualties – rather heavy. Regimental Command Post moved to Auw, Germany.

347th Regimental History: February 2 and 3, 1945. The Third Battalion was in Manderfeld and was to hold. The Second Battalion was to continue the attack on Weckerath, just a few hundred yards northwest of Auw, and from there, continue the attack due east to Krewinkel. The First Battalion was to move up from Laudesfeld to Wischeid and Verschneid. The whole zone was filled with a series of small towns and each of them had to be carefully cleared in order to allow the Division advance. By noon, the First Battalion was ordered to proceed to the Division objective of Losheim, the Second Battalion was to move on to Manderfeld and the Third Battalion was to go from Manderfeld to Berterath. The Regimental Forward Command Post was moved to Manderfeld and the final stage in the movement to the Siegfried Line was set.

The Second Battalion started its movement from Weckerath to Manderfeld early in the morning on the 3rd. At the same time, the Third Battalion moved on from Manderfeld to Berterath and the First Battalion was in the process of its advance to Losheim.

Parents of Keith Ottsen Learn How He Died in Action

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Ottsen, 1122 Maplewood drive NE, have received word from the commanding officer of the infantry division of which their son, Pfc. Keith, was a member. With Patton's Third army, he was killed in action in Belgium Feb. 2.

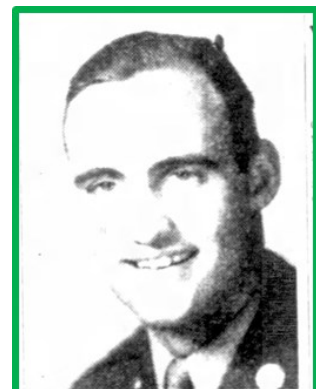

"Near Hume, Belgium, we were under heavy artillery and mortar fire all night," the communication said. "Your son had volunteered to deliver a message to an adjacent unit. He had left his fox hole and moved approximately 300 yards, when he was caught in heavy enemy mortar barrage. . . . A shell landed a few feet from him, and the concussion killed him instantly.

"He was buried in the military cemetery at Hamm, Luxembourg."

Keith's death was as he had wished it. He had remarked to his father before going overseas, "If my number is called, I hope I get it quickly and completely, as I don't want to be a burden on someone the rest of my life."

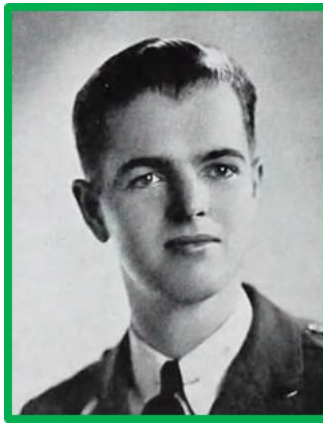

PFC. KEITH F. OTTSEN, 21, was killed in action in Belgium Feb. 2. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Ottsen, 1122 Maplewood drive NE. He was an infantryman in the Third army.

rites for Lt. Pitney to be held Friday.

The body of Lt. Jack Pitney, who lost his life in action on February 3, 1945, in Belgium, was brought home today, and funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Loran Fawcett funeral home. The Rev. Frank Sprague will conduct the services and interment will be made in the family lot in Neodesha cemetery. The body will be at the home, 215 Indiana, until 1:30 Friday when it will be removed to the funeral home.

The family requests no flowers. Jack C. Pitney was born September 1, 1920, in Neodesha, and was 24 years, 5 months and 2 days of age at his death. He had lived in Neodesha all his life. He was graduated from Neodesha High School and later attended Kansas State College for a time. Jack went overseas in July of 1944 as a replacement officer and was attached to the Third Army January 1, 1945. During his many years in Neodesha Jack was one of the most popular boys in the community, was highly regarded by all who knew him and his cheerful disposition and sunny smile were always in evidence. He was a member of the Neodesha Christian church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. G. C. Pitney, of the home, and an aunt, Mrs. Birdie Brown, also of the home. His father, G. C. Pitney, passed away January 25 of this year.

Pvt. Thomas, 18 when he was killed, was a graduate of St. Dominic's School, Detroit. He joined the Army June 9, 1944.

The Harris Kehrre Post No. 3323 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will officiate at the burial, in St. Mary's Cemetery, Wayne.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Frances Hosang Thomas, 3301 Akron Court, Wayne; his father, Harry B., of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Harold and Frank, and two sisters, Mrs. Floria Rusnell and Mrs. Irene Arenson.

Research

We have received a number of requests via our Website and Facebook page for information about our 87th veterans from their relatives, most not having any information beyond the knowledge of their service in the 87th. See some examples on page 5. Barbara Strang (daughter of Ted Anderson, B-912FA), Tim Muilenburg (son of Ivan Muilenburg, C-549AAA) and I handle most of the inquiries.

For starters, our website has a significant amount of information, and I will provide an overview of what we have based on these requests. Unfortunately, our information is far from complete. You may remember the research Ken Virgil (son of George Virgil L-347) performed to document his father's participation in the Rhine Crossing on March 25, 1945 that we chronicled in the December 2023 issue of the Golden Acorn News. His drive to get the 87th Division units involved in the crossing awarded the Arrowhead coupled with all these requests prompted me to get trained as a National Archives Researcher and visit the National Personnel Records Center in St. Louis at the end of May.

The 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association Website

The first place I look for information about an 87th veteran is on the 87th WWII Roster, which was put together by Jim Amor (A-345) and has just recently been updated. Go to Facts & Stats in the left margin and then WWII Rosters in the upper menu bar. The page continues inks to aforementioned roster and wel as rosters for D-345 and 787 Ordnance. A Find (or CTRL F) with Amor shows Jim Amor and his unit.

Reconstructed WWII Roster of the 87th Division

This roster is not comprehensive. It was constructed by Jim Amor (A-345) and other veterans of the 87th Division using numerous sources, including the 87th unit history books that were published shortly after World War II. Undoubtedly there are men who served with the division who are not listed in this document.

Roster of D Company, 345th Infantry Regiment

This roster was provided by the company clerk of 345-D, Mitch Kaidy. The exact time frame is unknown.

Roster of 787th Ordnance

This roster was provided by Casey Camper, son of Carl Camper. He also provided a roster of the Automotive Platoon.

The website has the Regimental Histories in the Publications section of the Archives section. The Regimental Histories contain a written history of the units from activation to deactivation with numerous photos. They have information on those who were awarded Purple Hearts, Silver Stars, Bronze Stars, Combat Infantry Badges and other awards. Those Killed in Action and Missing in Action are indicated. Company photos prior to the deployment in Europe are also included. On the next page, I provide an example of a simple search for Eldon A. Schultz.

The Archives has sections on Publications, Documents, Maps and After Action Reports, and we will soon be adding more after action reports and a section on Morning Reports. The Publications section contains all copies of the Golden Acorn News from 1942 until 2008, when the 87th Infantry Division Association became the 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association. 87th IDLA GANs are in the Members section. Under Documents, letters of commendation from the commanders, including General George S. Patton, unit citations and other important announcement as well the service album of Lt. Colonel, Robert Hibbert, Jr.. The excellent 87th Division Map tracking their movements across Europe is in the map section along with a couple of battle maps.

The Facts and Stats section contains lists and tables, such as the WWII Roster, 87th make-up by unit, commanding officers, and command posts. Most importantly, there is a link to a spreadsheet of those Killed in Action with several worksheets with associated statistics. Below is an excerpt from that file.

Emmerich Oths, great grandson of Eldon Abraham Schultz, sent a note via Contact Us on the website requesting information on his great grandfather. He is pictured in this photo of Company I of the 347th Infantry Regiment on pages 140 and 141 of the Regimental History. How did I find this information. First I went to the WWII Roster in the Archives section. Search the pdf file using CTRL F and enter Schultz to find Eldon and determine his unit. Next go to the Documents Section and open the Regimental History of the 347th and do another search of the pdf file. Eldon's name shows up a couple of time, but more interesting is his name is in the key to the Company I photo taken back in the States (most likely). In the actual book, the photo is in the fold across two pages. In the pdf, the two halves are on separate pages, but with a little work, we can find Eldon. I took the liberty of splicing them together above and then zooming in on the young private. I hope I counted correctly.

On the website, in the Articles section, there are many fist hand and other accounts, most by our veterans and members. We also have an extensive video library to accompany the articles.

The National Personnel Records Center is a department of the National Archives. On April 12, 1973, the previous location of the NPRC in St. Louis burned down resulting in the loss of 16-18 million records. The efforts to recover records damaged in the fire continues to this day at the new NPRC just north of St. Louis.

More on the fire can be found on the NPRC Website—Fire

To arrange a trip to the NPRC, I sent an Email to stlarr.archives@nara.gov. I received the rply below and completed the registration. I took the Researcher Orientation and quiz, which took about an hour, and completed the record request forms. Finally I made my appointment. The appointments are for the entire day and are electronic and provide e-tickets. There are a number of prohibited items, like coats and ink pens, that can lead to damage of some of the original documents. I had some difficulty downloading the e-tickets, so along with the prohibitions, I had some anxiety when I arrived. This was unnecessary as the staff was very helpful and accommodating. When you arrive, part in the parking lot to the right before the guard gate and go to the main lobby for a security screening. The records room reception is just to right. There's a snack bar in the lobby to get refreshments. Not even water is allowed in the records room.

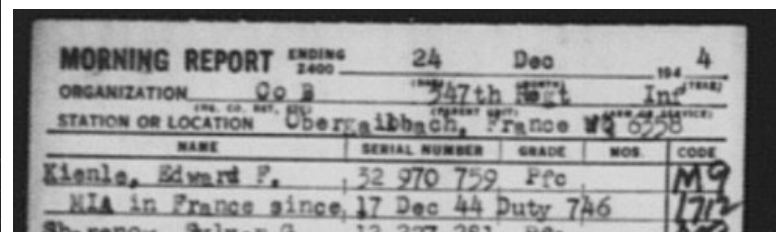

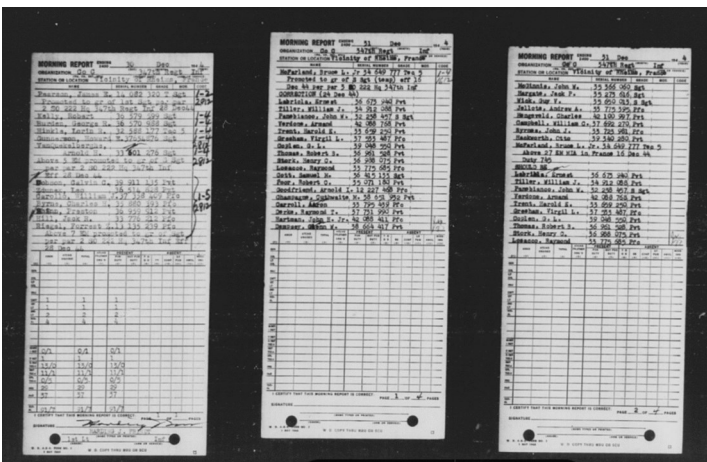

The National Archives requires that all researchers complete the following to be issued a Researcher ID Card at their visit. Please finish these items prior to your visit.

- Complete the National Archives Researcher Application by visiting: <https://researchercommunity.force.com/securitycentral/s/kiosk-registration>
- You will also need to complete the NARA Virtual Researcher Orientation which can be found here: https://rise.articulate.com/share/uK5NGkSpg74JHLTOcGPmM4e94MJyxQgD#. Once you have finished, the system will generate a certificate of completion which you'll need to forward to this email thread.
- Attached you will find the NA-13173 Request Form for military and civilian personnel records. When filling out the request form, please provide as much information as possible. This will assist us with locating the records you're requesting. You will need to fill out one form, per individual whose records you're requesting. You can attach each request to your email, or include them all in a PDF portfolio, whichever is easiest for you. If you digitally sign your Request Form, please do not lock the file. If you do not yet have a NARA Researcher ID, please leave the "Researcher ID Card Number" field blank. Your card and number will be issued to you at your appointment. You will receive confirmation from this email address once we've received your requests.
- We have transitioned to Eventbrite for scheduling research appointments. We're currently scheduling up to 90 days out for textual. If you choose a date, and it is sold out, that means there are no more appointments for that day. Each Week, at 12 AM on Mondays, a new week of appointments are added to Eventbrite. You can sign up for notifications on that platform. Please visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/o/national-archives-at-st-louis-49167066023> to schedule your appointment and select a date from the event "Textual Research Appointment" (for paper documents). We will confirm your appointment after we have received your certificate, application, and request forms.

Once I had checked in at the registration desk and received my researcher credentials, I was met by Archives Specialist, Holly Rivet. I sat down with Holly, so she got an idea of my experience and research objectives, which are learning more about our 87th veterans for their relatives. She then gave me the crash course on viewing records. They have good work stations at which they have stands to place documents for photographing and video with your phone or other device. Other more experienced researchers were there with their own scanning equipment. Phones, cameras and scanners are allowed. For all this it is critical to handle all these documents carefully, not letting them hang off an edge or placing something else on top of them. One researcher was meticulously removing toilet paper thin documents from a binder for scanning and then replacing them. Slow and tedious work. For starters I received the file of David Buteau for viewing. I describe what I found on the next page.

After looking at the records I requested, Holly took me to the morning reports files. Here I was reintroduced to microfilm. On the computers provided, we looked up the location of the morning reports for the 87th Division from December 1944. The microfilm is stored in large, metal, fire-proof file drawers and can be viewed on the traditional screen or computer monitors. In any case, the film is on reels as shown above and need to be threaded on either set-up. While there is a motor to advance and rewind, it is preferable to hand turn while moving from page to page, once you find your place. The images contain 3 cards as shown below. They always indicate the location of the unit on the given day and often give the map coordinates using the Modified British System. They will indicate if holding position, engaged or moving. Most importantly they will give information on the soldiers giving a summary of those present on the 1st month and then movements, such as leaves, transfers, MIA and KIA. While an unfortunate piece of information, I did find the date of the 87th IDLA President's father's (Woodrow Lennon B-347) capture on December 16, 1944. In his request on page 4 of this edition of the GAN, I provided John Noble with the morning reports for Company C, so he could get day by day locations of his father's unit for a visit to the Saar he was planning (I hope to report on that). I was able to scan the images on the monitors and then upload them to the cloud (Google Drive for me).

Unfortunately, I only had 5 hours, but I found a lot of interesting things. I am already planning my next trip and hopefully one to the National Archives in College Park, Maryland, where post-WWI regimental and unit records are primarily held.

Much of this information is on line at the National Archives Catalog.

Jennie Emerick, requested information on her grandfather, David H. Buteau, Jr. (D-345). She already knew his unit and some other basic information. Our Membership and Communications Chairman, Tim Muilenburg (son of Ivan Muilenburg, C-549AAA), searched the 345th Regimental History on the 87th IDLA website for her grandfathers name and found him in the Company D group photo on page 141. His name is also on page 186 for receiving the Combat Infantryman Badge, a very coveted medal.

My first request for records at the National Personnel Records Center (upper right) was for Jennie's grandfather. When I arrived, I was informed that David's records had been lost in the 1973 fire and they only had his final payslip, which had been filed elsewhere. The payslip still offered new information as to his service beyond his pay. It showed the day he returned to the US (7/11/45), his final day of service (11/30/45) and most importantly it offered his serial number. With the serial number I was able to search the microfilm using his name and serial number (Buteau AND 35091406), I quickly found two morning reports from Fort Jackson with his name. On February 1, 1944, David took a two-week leave and soon after his return from leave, PFC Buteau was promoted to Corporal on the 20th.

While these are just small pieces of information, all of them ultimately can paint a picture of our veterans' service.

The volunteers from the Association have spent countless hours putting together a website that is a wealth of knowledge for anybody researching the 87th Infantry Division. It contains biographies, photo galleries, maps, personal accounts, literary pieces, and more. Additionally, you will be able to access original editions of the Golden Acorn News and the Division History Book of the 87th in the Historical Archives section of the website.

We would gladly accept additional content related to the 87th to feature on the website. Please contact the webmaster George Welsh (info@87thinfantry.org) for website inquiries.

The public can now access videos on YouTube that were filmed at past 87th Infantry Division Educational Forum and Reunion events. These videos feature 87th veterans that have spoken about their personal war stories, and interactive presentations. Both of the links provided below will take you directly to the YouTube channel. Be sure to click the "Subscribe" button to receive notifications of future uploads to the 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association channel.

87th Infantry Division Tim Higgins Scholarship

Administered by: The 87th Infantry Division Legacy Association

The Legacy Association's mission is to preserve the World War II contributions of the 87th Infantry Division and educate the public about the significant sacrifices and contributions of the Division's soldiers during this pivotal global war. The 87th was an instrumental unit in General George S. Patton's 3rd Army success in the Battle of the Bulge during World War II. The Legacy Association is a group of sons, daughters, other relatives and friends intent on honoring the 87th's contribution to World War II by performing educational activities to ensure the Division's actions are not forgotten. Timothy D. Higgins was the son of John (Jack) W. Higgins. Jack was with Company A of the 346th Regiment of the 87th Infantry Division. Tim was the 4th President of the Legacy Association and worked tirelessly to help plan, conduct and document annual reunions/educational forums. These take place to continue to share the history of the Division. Tim faithfully attended the forums with his Dad and brought along his brother and children in hopes that they would continue the mission. Tim passed in 2021, and this Scholarship was set up in his name to honor all those who strive to ensure that the Division's contribution to a free world is not forgotten.
